

Fulbright Student Scholarship Program

The Fulbright Student Program brings citizens of other countries to the United States for post-graduate study at U.S. universities. The program, alumni of which include numerous Nobel Prize winners, offers participants an exceptional academic experience as well as insight into American society. Benefits include tuition and fees, a monthly living stipend, domestic and international airfare, and medical insurance. Fulbright student grants do not include support for family members of scholarship recipients.

Who Can Apply?

Fulbright student scholarships are available on a competitive basis to Saudi citizens (excluding dual U.S. nationals) living in Saudi Arabia who:

- Have a bachelor's degree and wish to pursue a master's degree starting in the fall of 2010;
- Demonstrate a high level of past academic achievement;
- Are proficient in English with a valid TOEFL score of at least 550 (paper-based), 213 (computer-based), or 79-80 (internet-based);
- Show interest in serving their communities.

"Information on the application procedures for next year's program will be available soon. For more information, please contact the Embassy's cultural affairs office at (01) 488-3800 ext. 4995.